Employment opportunities

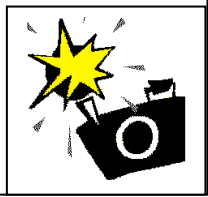

We have further positions for 1-1 support in school. If you are interested in this very important role and have some experience of working with children in education, please see Mrs Calderone in the finance office for more details.

On the evening Of October 26th, Mr Spearman accepted the runners up award for the Kettering Sports Award 2017 at Wicksteed Park on behalf of the school.

We are very proud of our sporting successes and all children who take part.

The School Photographer will be taking individual photos on Monday 13th November.

Fluenz Programme

A reminder that all children in Years 3&4 will have their flu vaccination on Wednesday 8th November.
